

Presenter:

Allan Forsberg

Allan lives and works in Grande Prairie. He is married to Mindy Dorn, and they have two adult children. Allan has taught school for 31 years, and in Grande Prairie and District Catholic Schools for 14 years. He has been involved in the Cursillo movement and the Engaged Encounter movement, and has served as a lector and in the music ministry for many years. He has a masters degree in Education and a Certificate in Theological Studies from Newman College. Allan's current interests center on the liturgy, the sacraments, and the contemplative life.

Sponsored by Peace Retreats

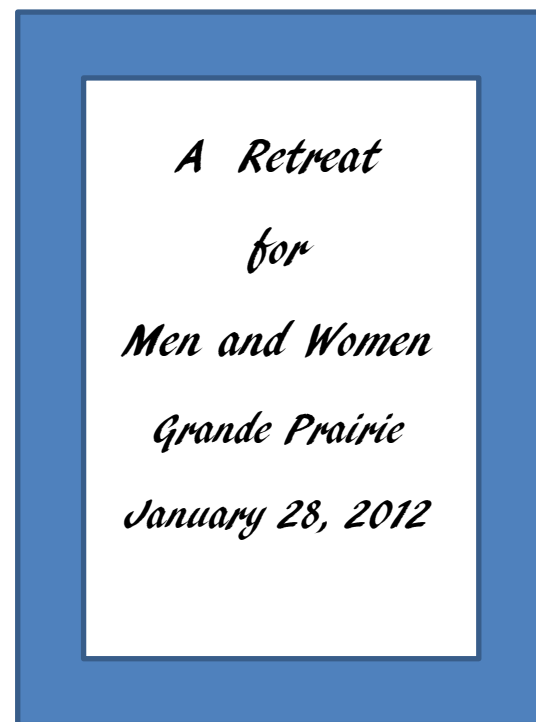

Peace Retreats seeks to respond to the hunger and thirst for God in our lives. The team facilitates retreat times and provides opportunities for spiritual direction.

Directions

St. Joseph's Church,
10404 – 102 St
Grande Prairie

Coming in from the North, keep on 100 St and turn right at the lights at 108 Ave. Then turn left onto 102 St. and keep going until you reach 104 Ave – the Church is on your right. Use the doors on the West end of the building. Enter and go up the stairs and turn right for the Liguori Room.

Coming from the West, turn left onto 102 St from the highway coming into town, (by the 214 Place high-rise). Keep going until you reach 104 Ave – the Church is on your left. Use the doors on the West end of the building. Enter and go up the stairs and turn right for the Liguori Room.

Finding God in Unexpected Places

Registration and Coffee: 9:30 am

The rest of the day until 3:30 pm will consist of reflections, time for prayer and/or journaling, coffee breaks, lunch and sharing around the following themes:

*Is God lost?

*Finding God in our Suffering,

*Finding God in our Unknowing

*Finding God in our Work,

*Finding in God Letting Go,

*The Path to Contemplation.

For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
nor are your ways my ways,
says the Lord.

For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

Isaiah 55:8-9
