Presbyterium and Annual Informational Meeting

On October 7, parish secretaries, staff, volunteers, and clergy gathered in Peace River for presentations and discussions on various areas of parish administration, including finances and maintenance.

The meeting also provided an opportunity to inform participants and update them on the Archdiocese's current policies, regulations, and protocols. Robin Whittaker from Acera, broker of the of the Archdiocese's insurance provider gave us a presentation on key aspects of the current insurance policy.

The gathering fostered collaboration, strengthened communication, and helped equip parish representatives with the information needed to support the effective management of parish administration and operations.
